

Lynden Pindling International Airport
Nassau Airport Development Company Ltd.
JOB OPPORTUNITY

Manager, Airfield and Environmental Affairs

Qualified persons are invited to submit a resume to people@nas.bs by Feb. 15, 2017.

DEPARTMENT Airside Operations & Public Safety

CLOSING DATE February 15, 2017

JOB PURPOSE Ensure the airfield is safe for flight operations and maximize asset life cycles through regularly scheduled maintenance and rehabilitation strategies. Ensure environmental sustainability through the implementation of policies, procedures and programs in accordance with applicable regulations and industry standards.

REPORTS TO: Director, Airside Operations & Public Safety

QUALIFICATIONS –

- Minimum of Associate's Degree in Civil Engineering with an environmental background or equivalent experience in the related fields.
- Minimum of three years work experience in related areas.
- Good knowledge of maintaining and replacing asphalt surfaces.
- Ability to identify hazards, develop and implement programs/procedures to eliminate same.
- Proven ability to manage and direct employees.
- General knowledge of the following: health and safety, surface and groundwater management, solid and hazardous waste management, air quality and climate change, spill response, hazardous material use and handling, wildlife management and natural resource protection.
- Knowledge and understanding of regulatory regimes and environmental laws, regulations and requirements.
- Good computer literacy skills.
- Excellent communication skills, both written and verbal.
- Ability to manage environmental programs from inception to completion.

KEY RESPONSIBILITIES –

- Develop effective asset management strategies (including pavement) to ensure safety and maximize the lifecycle of all airfield assets.
- Develop, implement and maintain an effective pavement management plan that includes routine preventative maintenance and planned rehabilitation of pavement surfaces.
- Maintain inventories and condition reports of all airfield assets.
- Work effectively with the Maintenance Department to ensure reliable airfield lighting.
- Supervise and direct the day to day activities of the Airfield Maintenance team.
- Research, plan and write environmental procedures and plans.
- Update and maintain the environmental management plan.
- Conduct regular inspections of company and tenant facilities.
- Ensure compliance with all applicable company & government environmental regulations.
- Undertake regular sampling of surface and groundwater to ensure the protection of local waters.
- Coordinate all aspects of pollution control, waste management, recycling, environmental health, conservation and renewable energy.
- Promote and raise environmental awareness at all levels internally and with external partners, particularly the impacts of emerging environmental issues.
- Implement and carry out an effective training program for staff.
- Manage the airport's wildlife control program.
- Act as a liaison with government agencies or departments and contractors on environmental matters.
- Work with airport stakeholders & contractors to ensure the airport community is environmentally responsible and meets or exceeds international standards.