"As the airline of choice for Florida and the Bahamas, we are thrilled to continue our commitment in serving travelers by growing our core markets in Florida and the Bahamas, and returning service to Nassau," said Silver Airways President and CEO Sami Teittinen.

"We are excited to welcome Silver Airways back to LPIA and we look forward to providing visitors travelling from Fort Meyers, Tampa, Jacksonville and West Palm Beach, Florida with an extraordinary first and last impression of Nassau," said Vernice Walkine, President and CEO of Nassau Airport Development Company Ltd. "The service from Silver Airways represents approximately 25,000 additional seats into Nassau from key gateways in Florida."

Minister of Tourism the Hon. Obie Wilchcombe said, "We are delighted that Silver Airlines is offering non-stop service from four of Florida's cities to Nassau. Florida is like a second home for many Bahamians, who enjoy its shopping, restaurants and entertainment. We hope that this service continues to cement the ties The Bahamas has with Florida and that this airline constantly brings full flights to our beautiful country."

"Bahamas has been a frequently-requested destination from Tampa Bay for years and we're thrilled to now offer nonstop flights to Nassau in addition to our existing route to Marsh Harbour," Tampa International Airport Vice President of Marketing Chris Minner said. "Silver Airways is a wonderful partner and will create easy connectivity to this popular spot for diving, snorkeling and resort vacationing."

From Tampa, Silver offers nonstop service to Fort Lauderdale, Jacksonville, Key West, Marsh Harbour, Panama City, Pensacola, Tallahassee, and West Palm Beach.

“The Bahamas are a popular destination for Northeast Floridians desiring an island getaway during the summer,” Jacksonville Aviation Authority CEO Steve Grossman said. “Thanks to Silver Airways, travelers can now fly nonstop to Nassau or Marsh Harbour.”

From Jacksonville, Silver offers nonstop service to Tampa and Marsh Harbour.

“I am extremely pleased that Silver Airways is inaugurating nonstop service to Nassau, Bahamas on May 26, 2016, from Southwest Florida International Airport,” said Robert M. Ball, A.A.E, executive director of the Lee County Port Authority. “One of our key air service development initiatives has been to attract service to the Bahamas and these new flights will directly link our region to this popular travel destination for the very first time.”

From Fort Myers, Silver offers nonstop service to Key West and Orlando.

“We are excited to offer nonstop service to Nassau on Silver Airways,” said Bruce Pelly, Director of Airports Palm Beach County. “Giving our travelers another option to and from NAS is important to PBI and we look forward to growing our partnership with Silver Airways.”

From West Palm Beach, Silver offers nonstop service to Tampa and Marsh Harbour.
